

MEGAN BARKER

ARTIST & SONGWRITER

"Her sweet, light country soprano is accompanied by a small jazz combo of piano/brushed snare/electric guitar on this gently wistful outing. The mood is utterly dreamy."

- Robert Oermann, MusicRow Magazine (Missin Mistletoe)

About

Megan Barker has songwriting in her blood. Born in Nashville, Megan's father wrote songs for legends like Ronnie Milsap and Hank Williams Jr. By age 16, she was living in Las Vegas and performing live music on the world famous strip, opening concerts for country music superstars like Lee Brice & Montgomery Gentry.

In 2017, Megan planted her roots back in Nashville and quickly started checking things off her to-do list. Bluebird Cafe, CMA Fest, & Whiskey Jam are all things she swiftly added to her resume'.

In 2018, Megan created the incredibly popular, Jammin In Jammies, a live music showcase in Nashville featuring hit songwriters and rising artists - in pajamas. In 2019, Megan completed her first run of shows in the UK and Northern Ireland.

A successful songwriter, Megan has had songs on SiriusXM and has many notable releases with rising country stars. In 2022, NSAI presented Megan with the Graduate Award. Megan also gained CMT's support for two of her music videos.

In 2023 Megan be traveling more than ever. In March she will debut at Tin Pan South in a stellar lineup alongside Mike Reid, Mitch Rossell, and Joel Shewmake.
